CHAMP STONE

ARA NAVEA, a quick-tempered miss of 14 summers, whose home is at Mount Palmer, violated the commands of her parents on the 4th and went to a dance.
They told her if she went she would be punished severely; but she took in the dance all the same; and then, fearing to go home, she came to Decatur and stayed with a lady friend until yesterday morning, when she saw by a notice in the Republican that J. H. Cretors wanted a girl to do housework, and she went to his residence on North Church street. Meantime the father of the girl came here from Mt. Palmer in search of his daughter, and with the assistance of the officers he found her. The father and daughter left for home this morning, and now Mr. Cretors wants another girl.
FROM all accounts Young America, of Freeport, Ill., must have had lively times on the 4th, and of course a Decatur boy took a hand in the celebration, and the celebration took part of one of his thumbs off. The name of the unfortunate lad is Wilkie Judson, aged 14, son of Mr. C. O.
Judson, of this city. Wilkie had a revolver in his hand, and it went off a little "too previous," the charge of powder tearing away part of the thumb which happened to be in the way. The doctor thought it best to slice off the lacerated portion of the injured member, and off it went above the first joint. Wilkie will never forget his experience on the 18th 4th.
TAN fan-loving members of the Redotto Club and friends didn't picnic last evening at the Cow Ford bridge, as was intended. They sought a cool retreat near the Bollinger Springs church, northwest of the city, and partook of a toothsome feast prepared by the young ladies of the party, and indulged in the usual outdoor pleasures incident to such an occasion.
The party came to the city in their rigs at a late hour, and ended the day by participating in a social dance at the home of the Misses Louis, Ida and Hattie Jones, for which Prof. Leonard's orchestra furnished the music.
FRANK FRONER is a busy man. No sooner has he succeeded in finding a paying vein of good coal in Decatur, than he darts off for "greener fields and pastures new." The Champaign Gazette of this week contains a paragraph indicating that this energetic gentleman is negotiating with the public-spirited people of that city and Urbana, trying to get them to join him in a scheme to sink a coal shaft on the dividing line between the two cities, which are a little over a mile apart.
DISREGARDING an injunction to the conwas struck off the Peoria, Decatur & Ev-velop whether railroads or courts of the state possess most power. The road has been having trouble with the people living at Newton, which will doubtless be amicably adjusted ere long.

AN infant child of Mrs. LeMars, the pletely hidden in the flesh, and the child suffered the most excruciating pain until a surgeon was summoned, who succeeded in removing the cause of the child's agony. The wound will heal up in time.

AFTER the newly elected officers of the

NICK WEBER.
He is in Court on a charge of being the Beer Garden nuisance in Winged Out.
The almost irrepressible Nicholas Weber, who has been the "chief cook and bottle-washer" of the notorious beer garden and hall south of the city, for a great number of years, is in close quarters at last, and may not be heard of in the future as a violator of the liquor law.
State's Attorney Jones has been his Namoos, and last evening Nick confessed and Judge Smith put the finishing touches to the business. The prisoner, confessed to 66 counts for selling liquor without license, and was fined $1200 and costs, and was given 30 days in the county jail.
He also confessed to keeping a nuisance, and the court fined him $50 and costs, and gave him an additional punishment on that charge of 30 days in jail. Judge Smith also ordered that the Weber beer garden—a confessed public nuisance—be closed by the sheriff, and be kept shut until Mr. Weber furnishes a bond in the sum of $1,000 that the hall will be no longer used as a place to retail intoxicating liquor in violation of law. As the matter now stands Weber will remain in jail for 60 days, and his place of business will be deserted so far as beer vendors and guzzlers are concerned. Within the past three years it has grown to be a notoriously bad place—the leading place of home and tramping robbers—seven of whom the State's Attorney has succeeded in sending to Joliet, and several others are on the way. The Judge notified Nick last evening if he was ever brought before him again under an indictment for violating the liquor law he would give him the full benefit of the law on conviction. His Honor means business, and will not hesitate to put Nick on the streets next time, and order that his limbs be ornamented with the ball and chain permanently.

For You, Madam,

Whose complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of complexion, we say use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It is a delicate, harmless and delightful article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.

Warrant for Garnfield.
Henry Ward Beecher's Teaching Prayer at Plymouth Church.

Let us join the millions who are making the space between heaven and earth thick with prayer, besieging the throne of God that He will have compassion on the nation and spare the life of the president. O, Lord, who has been good to this nation in days gone by, who has sent wars, famine and pestilence, and with all a crowding benefit; who has rebuked transgression and washed it away with blood; who made the sun to rise after the night and darkness of war, then smote the shepherd in the fold but did not suffer the nation to be destroyed, but restored tranquility in all its branches; and again in Thy mysterious way hast stretched out Thy hand to touch thy beloved, and suffered him to be struck down and filled the house of light and joy with darkness and trouble—oh, Lord, wilt thou not stay Thy hand? Do thou hold in wisdom and knowledge those who minister to the president. Endow them with divine knowledge; sustain his strength. Many have been shattered in the battle field and given over for dead, and yet now live. Enable him to endure the ordeal, even if months of suffering bring him to light; through a long recovery may Thy servant be restored to us. Show the light of Thy countenance to him, ease him of care, and shut him up in Thy pavilion. May no outward obligation trouble him; may his heart rest in Thee; may hope in Christ come as the light of the morning to him and may he be staid in God in perfect tranquility. O, Lord God, is Thy heart hardened? Is Thine ear heavy, or Thy hand shortened? Thou couldst bring Christ from the dead; canst Thou not restore health on the border of the grave? Death is not mightier than Thou. Thou who seest the heart knowest how the poor and needy hope in him, and how the whole people unite in bes
